

22nd Annual GALES
OF NOVEMBER

November 6-7, 2009

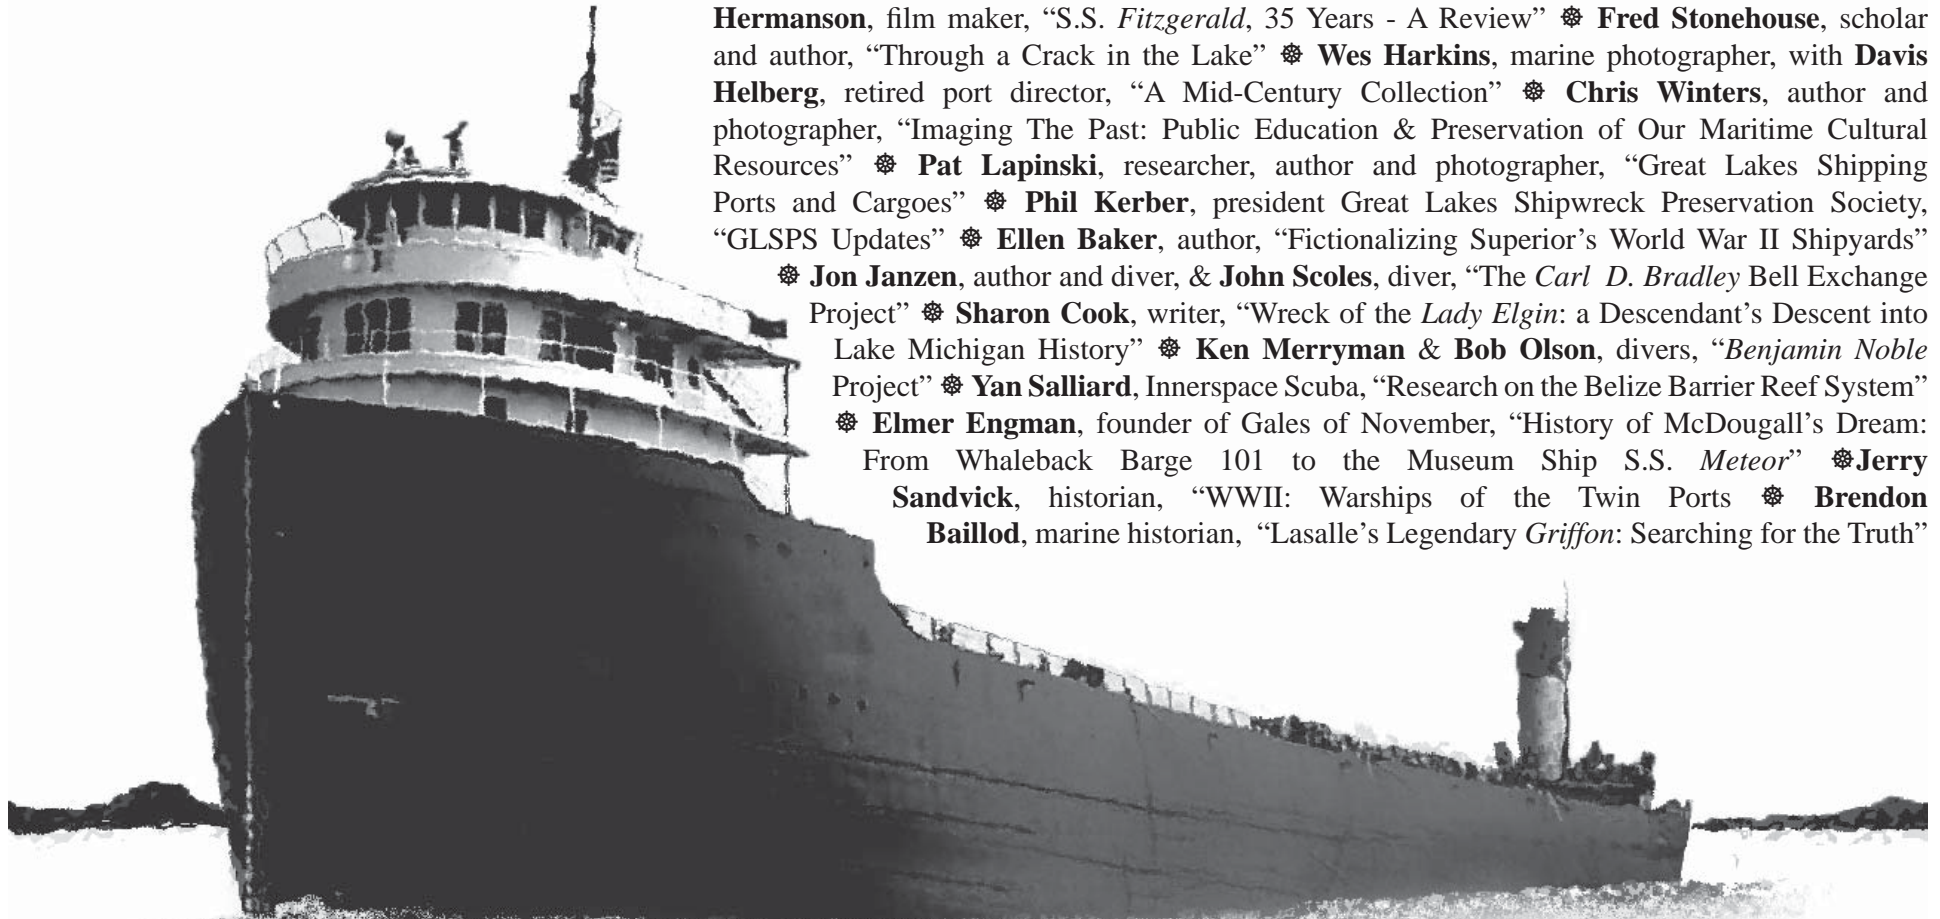

Featured Luncheon Speakers

Friday: Stephen Burnett, Executive Director, Great Lakes Cruising Coalition, "A World of Cruising"

Saturday: Valerie van Heest, Director, Michigan Shipwreck Research Associates, "Buckets and Belts: Evolution of the Great Lakes Self Unloaders"

Program Preview

Rus Hurt, photographer, "From the Deck: The Winter Run of 1974, 1975, and 1976" * Don Hermanson, film maker, "S.S. Fitzgerald, 35 Years - A Review" * Fred Stonehouse, scholar and author, "Through a Crack in the Lake" * Wes Harkins, marine photographer, with Davis Helberg, retired port director, "A Mid-Century Collection" * Chris Winters, author and photographer, "Imaging The Past: Public Education & Preservation of Our Maritime Cultural Resources" * Pat Lapinski, researcher, author and photographer, "Great Lakes Shipping Ports and Cargoes" * Phil Kerber, president Great Lakes Shipwreck Preservation Society, "GLSPS Updates" * Ellen Baker, author, "Fictionalizing Superior's World War II Shipyards" * Jon Janzen, author and diver, & John Scoles, diver, "The Carl D. Bradley Bell Exchange Project" * Sharon Cook, writer, "Wreck of the Lady Elgin: a Descendant's Descent into Lake Michigan History" * Ken Merryman & Bob Olson, divers, "Benjamin Noble Project" * Yan Salliard, Innerspace Scuba, "Research on the Belize Barrier Reef System" * Elmer Engman, founder of Gales of November, "History of McDougall's Dream: From Whaleback Barge 101 to the Museum Ship S.S. Meteor" * Jerry Sandvick, historian, "WWII: Warships of the Twin Ports" * Brendon Bailod, marine historian, "Lasalle's Legendary Griffon: Searching for the Truth"

www.LSMMA.com
218-727-2497

In celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the St. Lawrence Seaway, LSMMA is co-hosting the Gales of November with the Duluth Seaway Port Authority and longtime sponsors, Lake Superior Magazine and Grandma's Restaurants.